

RULES & REGULATIONS OF 2011 13th WTPA WUSHU & TAIJIQUAN COMPETITION

1. Competition Date and Time

Sunday 28th August 2011; 8:15 am – 6:00 pm (for competitors)

2. Venue

Monash University (Clayton Campus) Basketball Stadium,
Wellington Road, Clayton VIC 3168.
(Melway Ref: Map 70 G11)

3. Competition Management & Technical Officials

- a) The Wushu and Tai Chi Practitioners Australia Incorporated (WTPA) shall be responsible for the organisation of the Competition.
- b) All Technical Officials (Competition Referees, Judges, etc.) required by the Competition shall be appointed by WTPA.

4. Competitor Eligibility

- a) Open to any person/practitioner, groups and organisations of Wushu, Taijiquan, or Chinese Martial Arts.
- b) Competitor must fill in and submit the required registration forms, “Waiver of Liability Form” and pay the designated registration fees prior to the registration closing date of 5th August 2011.

5. Competition Format

The competition shall have the following formats:

- a) Individual events
- b) Dual (choreographed fighting/sparring set) events
- c) Team/group events

6. Competition Event Structure

- a) The competition will be conducted in accordance with the rules and regulations as stated in this document. Interpretation of the rules and regulations rests solely with the WTPA Organising Committee.
- b) The Organising Committee reserves the right to open a new event category (especially for traditional events) if participation of the particular event (or style) equals or exceeds five (5).
- c) The Organising Committee reserves the right to combine or cancel events and/or to group events into Exhibition (Demonstration) Events, if the Organising Committee considers the participation levels in these events to be too low (e.g. less than 3).
- d) The competing orders are randomly selected where practical.
- e) Taijiquan events, other than Traditional Taijiquan Weapons events, will generally be performed by two competitors at a time on the competition floor area (competitors are still marked individually).

7. Competition Divisions

There will be Twelve (12) divisions:

- 1) Junior Male (under 14yrs as of 1st of May) – Beginners level
- 2) Junior Male (under 14yrs as of 1st of May) – Advanced level
- 3) Junior Female (under 14yrs as of 1st of May) – Beginners level
- 4) Junior Female (under 14yrs as of 1st of May) – Advanced level
- 5) Men’s Open – Beginners level
- 6) Men’s Open – Advanced level
- 7) Women’s Open – Beginners level
- 8) Women’s Open – Advanced level
- 9) Men 45 to 59 Years Old
- 10) Women 45 to 59 Years Old
- 11) Men 60 Years & Over
- 12) Women 60 Years & Over

The Beginners and Advanced level are based on the number of years of Wushu/Taijiquan training and experience:

- a) Beginners – less than or equal to 3 years of training (as of 1st May)
- b) Advanced – more than 3 years of training (as of 1st May)

Note:

- The duration of “training/experience” is defined as how long the competitor has trained in Wushu/Taijiquan in general and not the time spends training/learning for that particular performance event (style or routine). Breaks taken off from training (semester off, holiday, etc.) are not to be subtracted from years of training/experience. For example, if you started 3.5 years ago, you are in advanced level even if you have taken one year off of Wushu/Taijiquan.
- Competitors must compete at a consistent skill level throughout the course of the Competition. (For example, one cannot participate in Advanced Changquan event and Beginner’s Daoshu event).
- Violation of the competitor’s skill level rule is grounds for disqualification.
- Certain events are for advanced level only. See application form for further details.
- There is no skill level categorisation for events of the Men and Women 45 to 59 Years Old divisions or the Men and Women 60 Years & Over divisions.
- There is no skill level or division categorisation for both the Dual and Team/Group Events

 - ❖ Techniques & Cooperation (Code G0 – G9) – Group events only
 - Movement Technical Specification (TS) comprises of
 - ❖ Specification of Movements & Techniques (Code 80 – 89)
 - Overall Performance (OP) comprises of the following aspects:
 - ❖ Power & Stability
 - ❖ Coordination
 - ❖ Spirits
 - ❖ Rhythm
 - ❖ Style
 - ❖ Content
 - ❖ Choreography
 - ❖ Music (for IWUF optional routines with difficulty movements and Group events only)
 - Difficulties & Connections Movements (Category A & B only):
 - ❖ As per IWUF Competition Rules 2005
- c) Scoring by Judges: Generally Six (6) judges will evaluate the competitor's quality of movements and/or overall performance: There will be two Judging Groups each consists generally of three (3) Judges.
- Group A Judges - will judge the Quality of Movements (QM) - deduct points according to the errors committed during the competitor's performance
 - Group B Judges - including one (1) Head Judge will judge the Overall Performance (OP) i.e. determine the level according to the competitors' Overall Performance and deduct points according to the errors committed in the Movement Technical Specification (TS)
 - For traditional events, all 6 judges will evaluate the Overall Performance (OP)
- d) Determination of Merited Score: For the Quality of Movements, the merited deductions shall be the average of the three deduction scores, i.e. QM scores = 5 – average merited deduction. For the Overall Performance, the merited scores shall be the average points of the three scores awarded (Note: For traditional events, both the highest and lowest scores are removed and the remaining scores are averaged).
- e) Scoring for Difficult Movements & Difficult Connections: In order to elevate the level of Wushu, the Difficult Movements and their associated Difficult Connections are as specified by the IWUF Competition Rules of 2005. Only Grade A & B Difficult Movements and their associated Difficult Connections are allowed. The Difficult Movements and their associated Difficult Connections are only applicable to Men's & Women's Advanced Changquan, Jianshu, Dashu, Gunshu, Qiangshu, Nanquan, Nandao, Nangun and IWUF Optional Taijiquan and Taijijian divisions.

The Head Judge or a panel of judges will decide whether or not the Difficult Movements were performed correctly. For the Difficulties Movements, the merited scores shall be the average points of the scores awarded by the Head Judge / panel of judges. Note: All difficulty movements must be pre-registered (i.e. accompanying your registration forms). Please refer to Section 33 and the IWUF Competition Rules of 2005 for further details and the list of Difficult Movements and their classifications (website: www.iwuf.org)

- f) Determination of Final Score: The competitor's final score is the sum of the two merited scores plus or minus the points given by the head judge in accordance with these Rules; i.e. Final score = QM + OP +/- head judge deductions/adjustments; or for events with Difficult Movements: Final score = QM + OP + (DM) +/- head judge deductions/adjustments

13. Out of Area Point Deductions

Any part of the competitor's body trespasses the boundary shall result in a deduction of 0.2 point.

14. Re-performing

- a) A competitor whose performance of a routine is interrupted by uncontrollable circumstances (i.e. spectator interference, debris being thrown into the competition arena, or the head judge's direction to stop) may repeat it with the head judge's approval without deduction of points.
- b) Re-performing will not be allowed due to noise from other competitors or the spectators.
- c) A competitor whose performance of a routine is interrupted through a lapse of memory, his/her own faults, or a damage of his/her apparatus causing a change in its properties, may repeat his/her performance, but with a deduction of one (1) point.
- d) When a competitor is not able to continue his/her performance owing to injuries, the head judge has the right, to stop it. When he/she is in a position to resume the performance after receiving first aid, arrangements may be made for him/her to continue the competition as the last to be fielded in his/her group, which shall be treated as a case of repetition and result in a deduction of one (1) point. Failure to resume performance as required because of injuries shall be considered forfeiture.

15. Placing & Awards

The following awards will be given:

- 1) 1st Place - Gold Medal and Placing Certificates
- 2) 2nd Place - Silver Medal and Placing Certificates
- 3) 3rd Place - Bronze Medal and Placing Certificates
- 4) 4th, 5th & 6th Place - Placing Certificates
- 5) 7th Place onwards - Demonstration Certificates
- 6) Male Wushu Champion and Male Taijiquan Champion – Trophies
- 7) Female Wushu Champion and Female Taijiquan Champion – Trophies
- 8) Most Supportive School Award

For dual/group event, awards will be given to each member of the group.

Placing of Individual & Team/Group Event

Competitor with the highest final score in the event shall be placed first; the competitor with the second highest score shall be placed second, so on and so forth. In case of a tie, the competitor with the higher merited score in the overall performance shall be placed higher. If the tie still remains, the tied competitors shall share the place, with the next place(s) left vacant

Champion

To be eligible for the Champion Trophy, the competitor must enter in at least three (3) events in either the Advanced Level categories, the "45 to 59 Years Old" or the "60 years or Over" categories.

The Champion will be decided by the "merited" score system - the merited score shall be the average score of all the event scores awarded (i.e. both the highest and lowest scores are removed and the remaining scores are averaged).

The competitor having the highest merited score will be awarded the Champion Trophy. In case of a tie the competitor ranking first in more events shall be placed higher. If the tie still remains, the competitor ranking second in more events shall be placed higher, and so on and so forth. In case of an equal ranking in all individual events, the tied competitors shall share the place, with the next place(s) left vacant.

Most Supportive School Award

The Wushu/Taijiquan/martial arts school with the most number of competitors in this year's Competition will be given this award. In case of a tie, the school which has submitted all the completed registrations earliest to WTPA (i.e. the date that the last completed registration form from that school is received at WTPA) will be given the award.

16. Music and Other Props

- a) Music accompanying the performance is allowed for IWUF optional routines with difficulty movements and Group Events only.
- b) The music content must not contain any singing and/or verbal instructions.

- c) Music audio-tape or CD must be given to the competition official prior to the performance.
- d) Props such as materials for breaking are NOT allowed.

17. Competitors Costume & Uniform Requirements

Competitors shall wear appropriate sports clothing or Wushu/kung-fu uniforms. Karate-type uniforms are NOT considered appropriate, and are not permitted. The Competition Organising Committee reserves the right to make the final judgments on appropriate attire. Failure to comply with the following costume and uniform requirements may result in point deductions by the Head Judge when determining the competitor's final score or at worst may lead to disqualification.

- a) Tops may either be sports T-shirts or traditional jackets of any Chinese style and material (e.g. Wushu/Kung-fu uniforms).
- b) Uniforms (including Sports T-shirts) bearing distinguishing school or organisation logos or any advertising logos are not permitted to be worn by competitors while performing.
- c) Uniforms should be clean and tidy at the start of the competition.
- d) T-shirts shall be tucked into the pants.
- e) Pants shall be long and either gathered or open at the ankles.
- f) A sash or belt must be worn (no karate-style belts) in Wushu events, except in internal style events (e.g. Xing-yi, Taijiquan, Ba-gua, etc.)
- g) Martial arts style athletic or any rubber-soled sports shoes/sneakers must be worn (performance with bare feet is not allowed). Shoes should be clean especially the soles.
- h) No jewelries (such as heavy metal, watches, ear-rings, rings or body-piercing pieces, etc) are allowed i.e. they must be removed prior to the event. If ring cannot be removed, inform the head judge prior to the event. Ear studs are permitted if the head judge is informed prior to the event.

18. Weapons Specifications & Requirements

Weapons used in the competition must comply with the following specifications and requirements. Failure to comply with the weapon specifications and requirements may result in point deductions from the competitor's merited score by the Head Judge or at worst may lead to disqualification.

Oiang (spear): The whole length shall not be shorter than that from the performer's fingertips to his sole when he stands erect with his arms raised straight overhead. It must be fitted with a tassel.

Gun (cudgel): The whole length shall not be shorter than the performer's body.

Jian (sword): The point of the sword shall not be lower than the top of the performer's ear when it is held backhand with the arm straightened and hanging down and the elbow dropped. It must be fitted with a tassel.

Dao (sabre): The point of the sabre (broadsword) shall not be lower than the top of the performer's shoulder when it is held erect in the hand, with the arm straightened and hanging down and the elbow dropped. It must be fitted with a sash.

Other: Other weapons of other specifications may be allowed, at the discretion of the Head Judge, if deemed appropriate to the style/routine being performed. However, the weapons must be of Chinese origin. (Notes: Competitor must have a relevant valid permit/licence for any prohibited weapons used in the competition. The competitor is not allowed to compete without a valid permit/licence).

19. Prohibited Weapons

- a) It is the responsibility of the competitor to have a valid permit/licence as required by the Victorian Prohibited Weapons Legislation, for any prohibited weapon (such as 9-sectional whip/dart, double moon shape knife, etc.) other than those weapons with class exemption held by a group to which you belong e.g. tai chi or Wushu swords used by WTPA members to be used in the competition.
- b) Competitor without a valid permit/licence is not allowed to compete in that particular event category.
- c) Competitors shall bring along their permit/licence with them on the day of the Competition. Competition officials will demand for the competitor to show his/her prohibited weapon's permit/licence. Failure to present a copy of the permit may result in disqualification from weapons events.

20. Safe Keeping of Weapons

- a) Each competitor is responsible for the safe keeping of his/her weapons at all times (including transport to and from the competition venue) as required by the Victorian Prohibited Weapons Legislation.
- b) A competitor, after repeated warnings, who fails to comply to securely keep his/her weapons during the competition especially when the weapons are not in used, may result in disqualification.

21. Competition Protocol

Competitors must abide by the following protocol. Departures from this protocol will result in appropriate points deduction from the competitor's merited score by the Head Judge, or at worst may lead to disqualification.

Assembly of Competitors

- a) It is each competitor's own responsibility to be at his/her own event on time to compete. (Note: All events will be pre-scheduled and posted in various places in the registration/warm-up area. All competitors should familiarize themselves with the order of events, and check in from time to time to make sure that no event has been re-scheduled).
- b) Competitors must assemble near the designated competition area (marshalling area) at least 10 minutes prior to the scheduled event.
- c) Should a competitor have an obligation in another arena, he/she or his/her representative must at this time tell the competition officials so they can readjust the competing order to accommodate his or her other competing obligations.

Calling the Competitors

- a) Once the event has started, the head judge will then announce the name of the competitor. If a competitor's name is called three times and there is no response, and that competitor is not concurrently competing in another event, that competitor will forfeit his/her right to compete in the event.

Entering the Competition Arena

- a) When the competitor's name is called, he/she will approach the arena (or a designated area outside the competition arena) and salute the head judge (refer to Article 26 for the salutation protocol). The competitor shall not salute to any other judges or officials
- b) The competitor shall then "march" or walk evenly and directly to his/her beginning position.
- c) At no point should the competitor speak to any officials or judges once his/her name is called.

Beginning of the Performance

- a) Once the beginning position is found, the competitor will stand perfectly still at attention facing the head judge.
- b) Upon receiving a signal from the head judge, the competitor may begin his/her performance.
- c) The competitor must begin his/her performance within 5 seconds after receiving the signal from the head judge.
- d) The time clock will begin at the first movement of any part of the competitor's four limb.

Conclusion of the Performance

- a) The time clock will stop when the form is finished and the competitor returns to a stationary and relaxed position.
- b) The commencing and conclusion movement shall be done on the same side of the arena and towards the same direction (i.e. facing the head judge). In case of different commencing or finishing move, the competitor shall inform the head judge in advance (i.e. before the event started)
- c) Upon completion, the competitor will again walk evenly to the same place he/she entered, turn around, and face the head judge once again in a relaxed, upright position. {Note: if the competitor does not face the head judge in the closing form, he/she shall turn to face the head judge after the closing form}.

Exiting the Competition Arena

- a) After receiving his or her final score, the competitor will acknowledge the score by saluting only the Head Judge.
- b) The competitor is now finished with his/her form, and may leave the competition area.

22. Disqualification

- a) At the discretion of the competition head judge and/or the competition referee, a competitor may be disqualified from the competition on the grounds of:
 - Unruly and/or un-sportsmanship behaviour; or
 - Failure to accord proper respect and courtesy towards the judges, officials, fellow competitors, or spectators present in the Competition
 - Failure to produce a valid permit/licence for prohibited weapon(s) used in the competition; or
 - Ignoring the warning given to securely keep the weapon(s) while not in use.

- b) At the discretion of the head judge, a competitor may be disqualified from the particular event on the grounds of failing to comply with the costume/uniform requirements and/or weapons requirements.
- c) If the competitor's performance is evaluated as being of a different level category (for example an advanced competitor competing in the beginner level category), the head judge after consultation with the scoring judges has the right to disqualify the competitor from the particular event.
- d) If the competitor's performance is evaluated as totally being of a different style as it is purported to be (for example, too many Long Fists movements in Taijiquan events), the head judge after consultation with the scoring judges has the right to disqualify the competitor from the particular event.
- e) A disqualified competitor causes his/her eligibility in All Round Grand Champion or Special Encouragement Award terminated
- f) Disqualification shall be made official by the Competition Referee.

23. Appeal & Arbitration

- a) Competitor must respect the final score given by the Head Judge.
- b) There shall NOT be any appeal and arbitration process.

24. Salutation Protocol

- a) For Bare Handed Routine - In a standing position with feet together and the left palm (fingers extended) and the right fist pressed against each other (with the top of the knuckles of the right hand in line with the bottom of the left hand fingers - on the palm side) at chest height about 20-30cm away from the chest.
- b) Salute with Sabre/Broadsword - Standing with feet together the sabre/broadsword held in the left hand, bend the elbow to lift the broadsword to chest height with sharp edge on top. Raise the right arm and place the centre of the palm on the first joint of the left thumb 20-30cm away from the chest.
- c) Salute with Sword- Slowly with feet together and the sword in left hand bend the left elbow to raise the sword to chest height (the body of the sword is in contact with the outside of the forearm) and place the heel of the palm of the right hand at the bottom of the left index finger at chest height 20-30cm away from the chest.
- d) Salute with Spear or Cudgel - Standing with feet together the right hand holding the spear or cudgel one third of the way from the bottom, lift the right arm to chest height 20-30cm away from the chest with the spear or cudgel held vertically, place left palm on the second joint of the right thumb.
- e) Salute with Fan - Slowly with feet together and the fan in right hand bend the right elbow to raise the fan to chest height (the body of the fan is not in contact with the outside of the forearm). Place the heel of the palm of the left hand at the bottom of the right index finger at the chest height 20-30cm away from the chest.
- f) For routines which use two (2) weapons (e.g. double weapons), both weapons should be held in one hand to salute in the same way as with the salute broadsword, spear or cudgel. When it is impractical to salute whilst holding both weapons in the hands, an eye salute should be performed by standing with feet together facing the Head Judge.
- g) When a competition official inspects a weapon, if it is a short weapon the competitor should hand it to the official with the tip pointing down and the weapon held vertically. If it is a long weapon it should be handed to the official with the tip (thin end) pointing up and the weapon held in a vertical position

32. Difficult Movements & Difficult Connections

- a) Only Grade A and B as specified in the 2005 IWUF Competition Rules are allowed to be performed. If either Grade C or D difficulty movements are performed, they will be considered as Grade B movements.
- b) Repetition of a particular difficult movement and difficult connection is NOT allowed.
- c) Maximum of 2 points are to be registered as per 2005 IWUF Competition Rules.
- d) All difficulty movements must be pre-registered (i.e. accompanying your registration forms i.e. complete one difficulty movement registration form for each optional event).
- e) Points will only be awarded upon each successful completion of the difficult movement.
- f) The Quality of Movement (QM) judges will deduct points as normal for losing balance, extra support or fall.
- g) Participant may be asked to walk through the routine to show the Judging Panel where in the routine he/she will perform the difficulty movements prior to his/her performance event. This allows the Judging Panel to better evaluate whether or not the participant successfully completed the difficulty movement he/she was intending to do.

DECLARATION OF UNDERSTANDING & WAIVER OF LIABILITY

Every participant must sign this declaration of understanding and waiver of liability form.

Exclusion of Certain Rights to Sue

Section 97A Goods Act 1958 and Goods (recreational services) Regulations 2003

About This Form

Under sections 91 and 92 of the Goods Act 1958, several conditions are implied into contracts for the sale of certain goods and services. These conditions mean that the provider named below is required to ensure that the recreational services it engages in with you are:

- rendered with due care and skill; and
- as fit for the purpose for which they are commonly provided as it is reasonable to expect in the circumstances; and
- reasonably fit for any particular purpose or might reasonably be expected to achieve any result you have made known to the provider.

If you sign this form, you waive your rights under sections 91 and 92 of the Goods Act 1958 to sue the provider for losses relating to death or personal injury if the provider's breach of these requirements results in your death or your personal injury. Signing this form does not affect any rights that you may have under other sections of the Goods Act 1958 or any other Acts or laws.

You should be aware that signing this form may have an effect on any insurance policy that covers you for death or personal injury. If you have any concerns about the effect of signing this form you should discuss this with your insurer or legal adviser.

To: Wushu & Tai Chi Practitioners Australia Inc. (WTPA) of PO Box 539 Box Hill Victorian 3128 (known as the provider)

I the undersigned, knowingly and without duress, do voluntarily participate in the WTPA Wushu and Taijiquan Competition.

I understand the demanding physical and/or psychological nature of the Competition. I am not aware of any medical conditions or impairments that may be detrimental to my health if I participate in this Competition. In the event I become aware of a medical condition or impairment or am otherwise ill or injured prior to and / or during the Competition, I will withdraw from the Competition.

I also understand and acknowledge my participation in the Competition may involve a real risk of serious injury or even death from various causes including over exertion, accident, etc. I warrant that I am medically sound and hereby assume all risk of physical and mental injuries, disabilities and losses which may result from or in connection with my participation in the Competition.

I acknowledge that that it is a condition of my participation in this Competition that I do so at my own risk, I accept all risks and release WTPA (and their officers, volunteers, sponsors, etc.) from any liability (to the extent permitted by law) for any loss, injury or damage suffered in relation to my attendance and participation at the Competition, however so caused, including due to any negligence or other act or omission of WTPA (or their officers, volunteers, sponsors, etc.). This release continues forever and binds my heirs, successors, executors and personal representatives. Further, by signing this form I understand I waive my rights to sue WTPA for losses relating to my death or my personal injury that results from a breach of a condition specified in sections 91 and 92 of the Goods Act 1958.

I fully understand that all medical attention or treatment afforded to me by WTPA, its officers, representatives, volunteers, and all other related members will be of the first aid only, and hereby release WTPA, its officers, representatives, volunteers, and all other related members from any liability for administering such aid.

I agree that my performance, attendance, and participation at the Competition may be filmed or recorded.

Prohibited Weapons:

If I am participating in an event or events that use prohibited weapons, I declare that I have the necessary valid permit/licence for the prohibited weapon(s) that I use or that I am a member of a group that holds a class exemption for the use of that type of weapon.

I have read and understood the requirements on Prohibited Weapons as stated in section 19 of the Rules and Regulations of this WTPA Wushu and Taijiquan Competition. I understand that I will need to present a copy of the applicable permits/licences for the prohibited weapon(s) to WTPA officials at registration on the day of the Competition.

I agree to keep my weapon(s), which are deemed as prohibited weapons under the Victorian Prohibited Weapons Legislation, safe and secure especially when they are not in used as well as during transport to and from the Wushu and Taijiquan Competition.

I understand that if the WTPA has not complied with any law about the proper completion of this form and how my signature is obtained (for example, if WTPA has made a false or misleading statement in relation to the steps taken by WTPA to avoid the danger of death or personal injury), or has acted recklessly, the WTPA cannot enforce this waiver.

I agree to abide by and follow the Rules and Regulations of this Wushu and Taijiquan Competition as established by WTPA.

I have read and fully understand the declaration listed above.
